CYRIL TAKUDZWA NGWERUME

JUNIOR/INTERN I.T SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

PROFILE

I am an aspiring software developer/Solutions Architect, I love Programming and Networking and the hybrid of these two sectors gives us Cloud computing which is a topic I am very passionate about, I excel in these I.T sectors and I would love to see myself working in these departments. I believe in teamwork because where one team member lacks, another can assist them and improve their skills in that sphere and that will result in goals/targets being achieved with excellence.
